PROVINCIAL TAX ORDINANCE NO. 15 - 176

REVISED 2015 REVENUE CODE OF BENGUET PROVINCE

EXPLANATORY NOTE

WHEREAS, there is an imperative necessity to input amendments on the provisions of Provincial Tax Ordinance No. 05-107 which was approved on December 5, 2005 to cope up with existing price increase, to impose charges commensurate to the cost of services rendered which are not covered by the existing Revenue Code, to amend provisions of the Code which were declared unconstitutional by a Supreme Court decision, and to reconcile repetitious provisions of the Revenue Code which were included in the charges collected by various offices of the provincial government;

WHEREAS, Section 191 of the Local Government Code of 1991 grants authority to the LGU's to adjust the tax rates as prescribed in the Code not oftener than once every five (5) years, but in no case shall such adjustment exceed Ten Percent (10%) of the rates fixed in the Code;

NOW THEREFORE, be it ordained by the Sangguniang Panlalawigan of Benguet in session assembled that:

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article One Short Title and Scope

- Section 1. Short Title. This Ordinance shall be known as the "Revised 2015 Revenue Code of Benguet Province".
- Section 2. Scope and Application. This Code shall govern the levy, assessment, and collection of taxes, fees, charges and other impositions within the territorial jurisdiction of Benguet Province.

Article Two. Construction of Provisions

- Section 3. Words and Phrases Not Herein Expressly Defined. Words and phrases embodied in this Code not herein specifically defined shall have the same definitions as found in R.A. No. 7160, otherwise known as the "Local Government Code of 1991".
- Section 4. Rules of Construction. In construing the provisions of this Code, the following rules of construction shall be observed unless otherwise inconsistent with the manifest intent of the said provisions;
  - (a) General Rules. All words and phrases shall be construed and understood according to the common and approved usage of the language; but the technical words and phrases and such other words in this Code which may have acquired a peculiar or appropriate meaning shall be construed and understood according to such technical, peculiar or appropriate meaning.
  - (b) Gender and Number. Every word in this Code importing the masculine gender shall extend to both male and female. Every word importing the singular number shall apply to several persons or things as well; and every word importing the plural number shall extend and be applied to one person or thing as well.
  - (c) Reasonable Time. In all cases where an act is required to be performed within a reasonable time, the same shall be deemed to mean such time as may be necessary for the prompt performance of the act.
  - (d) Computation of Time. The time within which an act is to be done as provided in this Code, or in any rule or regulation issued pursuant to the provisions thereof, when expressed in days, shall be computed by excluding the first day and including the last day, except if the last day falls on a Sunday or Holiday, in which case, the same shall be excluded in the computation and the business day following shall be considered the last day.
  - (e) References. All references to Chapters, Articles, or Sections are to the Chapters, Articles or Sections in this Code unless otherwise specified.
  - (f) Conflicting Provisions of Chapters or Articles. If the provisions of different Chapters or Articles conflict with or contravene each other, the provisions of each chapter or article shall prevail as to all specific matters and questions involved therein.

CHAPTER 2. PROVINCIAL TAXES

Article One. Real Property Tax

- Section 6. Imposition of the Basic Real Property Tax. There is hereby levied an annual AD VALOREM TAX at the rate of one percent (1%) of the assessed value of real property, such as land, building, machinery and other improvement not specifically exempted under this tax ordinance.
- Section 7. Additional Levy on Real Property for the Special Education Fund (SEF). There is hereby levied a one percent (1%) tax on the assessed value of real property which shall be in addition to the basic real property. The proceeds thereof shall accrue exclusively to the Special Education Fund (SEF).
- Section 8. Special Realty Tax Rates on Equipment and Machinery. There shall be levied a special tax of Two (2%) Percent on the assessed value of civil works, equipment, machinery and other improvements of a registered mini-hydroelectric power developer. Of this two (2%) percent, one (1%) percent shall accrue to the basic tax and the other one (1%) percent to the Special Education Fund.
- Section 9. Exemptions. The following are exempted from payment of the basic real property tax and the SEF tax:
  - (a) Real property owned by the Republic of the Philippines or any of its political subdivisions except when the beneficial use thereof has been granted, for consideration or otherwise, to a taxable person;
  - (b) Charitable institutions, churches, and parsonages or convents appurtenant thereto, mosques, non-profit or religious cemeteries and all lands, buildings and improvements actually, directly, and exclusively used for religious, charitable or educational purposes;
  - (c) All machineries and equipment that are actually, directly, and exclusively used by local water districts and government-owned or controlled corporations engaged in the supply and distribution of water and/or generation and transmission of electric power;
  - (d) All real property owned by duly registered cooperatives as provided for under R.A. No. 6938, as amended; and
  - (e) All machineries and equipment used for pollution control and environmental protection. Except as provided herein and pursuant to Section 234 of the LGC, any exemption from payment of real property tax previously granted to, or presently enjoyed by, all persons, whether natural or juridical, including all government-owned or controlled corporations are hereby withdrawn effective January 1, 1992.

Section 10. Time of Payment. The real property tax herein levied together with the additional levy on real property for the Special Education Fund (SEF) shall be due and payable on the first day of January. The same may, however, at the discretion of the taxpayer, be paid without interest/penalty in four (4) equal installments: the first installment on or before March 31; the second installment, on or before June 30; the third installment, on or before September 30; and the last installment, on or before December 31.

Both the basic and the additional SEF tax must be collected simultaneously. Payments of real property tax shall first be applied to prior year's delinquencies, interests and penalties, if any, and only after said delinquencies are settled may tax payments be credited for the current period.

Section 11. Tax Discount for Advanced and Prompt Payment.

- a) Advanced Payment Discount. If the basic real property and additional SEF taxes are paid in full before January 1, the taxpayer shall be entitled to a discount of Ten Percent (10%).
- b) Prompt Payment Discount. If the basic real property and additional SEF taxes are paid in full from January 1 to March 31 of the current year, the taxpayer shall be entitled to a discount of eight percent (8%).
- Section 12. Collection and Distribution of Proceeds. The collection of the real property tax with interest thereon and related expenses, and the enforcement of the remedies provided for in this Article or any applicable laws, shall be the responsibility of the Municipal Treasurer. The Municipal Treasurer may deputize the Barangay Treasurer to collect all taxes on real property located in the Barangay: Provided that the Barangay Treasurer is properly bonded for the purpose: Provided, further, that the premium on the bond shall be paid by the Municipal Government concerned.

The proceeds of the basic real property tax, including interest thereon, and proceeds from the use, lease or disposition, sale or redemption of property acquired at a public auction, and a portion of the tax paid under protest, in accordance with the provisions of this Article, shall be distributed as follows:

- 1. Province Thirty-five percent (35%) which shall accrue to the General Fund;
- 2. Municipality Forty percent (40%) which shall accrue to the General Fund of the Municipality where the property is located;
- 3. Barangay Twenty-five percent (25%) which shall accrue to the barangay where the property is located.

The share of the barangay shall be released directly to the Barangay Treasurer on a quarterly basis within five (5) days after the end of each quarter, without need of any further action, and shall not be subject to any lien or holdback for whatever purpose, subject to such rules as may be prescribed by the Commission on Audit for this purpose.

The proceeds of the additional one percent (1%) SEF tax shall be automatically released and shall be divided equally between the Provincial and Municipal School Boards for the operation and maintenance of public schools, construction and repair of school buildings, facilities and equipment, educational research, purchase of books and periodicals, and sports development as determined and approved by the Local School Board.

The proceeds of the real property tax due prior to the effectivity of the Local Government Code of 1991 (R.A. No. 7160) shall be distributed in accordance with the scheme prevailing at the time the said taxes were due and payable.

Section 13. Administrative Provisions.

(a) On the Collection of the Real Property Tax.

- 1. Assessor to Furnish Treasurer with Assessment Roll. The Local Assessor shall prepare and submit to the Local Treasurer on or before the thirty-first (31st) day of December each year, an assessment roll containing a list of all persons whose real properties have been newly assessed or reassessed and the values of such properties.
- 2. Notice of Time for Collection of Tax. The Local Treasurer shall, on or before the thirty-first (31st) day of January each year, in the case of basic real property tax and the additional tax for the SEF or on any other date to be prescribed by the Sangguniang Panlalawigan in the case of any other tax levied under this Article, post the notice of the dates when the tax may be paid without interest at a conspicuous and publicly accessible place at the provincial hall. Said notice shall likewise be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the locality once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks.

3. Payment under Protest.

- a. No protest shall be entertained unless the taxpayer first pay the tax. There shall be annotated on the tax receipt/s the words "paid under protest". The protest must be in writing and shall be filed within thirty (30) days from payment of the tax to the Provincial Treasurer who shall decide the protest within sixty (60) days from receipt.
- b. The tax or a portion thereof paid under protest shall be held in trust by the treasurer concerned.
- c. In the event that the protest is finally decided in favor of the taxpayer, the amount or portion of the tax protested shall be refunded to the protester, or applied as tax credit against his existing or future tax liability.

- d. In the event that the protest is denied or upon the lapse of the sixty (60) day period prescribed in sub-paragraph a, the tax payer may, within sixty (60) days from receipt of the written notice of assessment, appeal to the Provincial Board of Assessment Appeals by filing a petition under oath in the standard form prescribed therefore, together with copies of the tax declaration and such affidavits or documents in support of the appeal.
- 4. Repayment of Excessive Collection. When an assessment of basic real property tax, or any tax levied under this Article, is found to be illegal or erroneous and the tax is accordingly reduced or adjusted, the taxpayer may file a written claim of refund or credit for taxes and interest with the Provincial Treasurer within two (2) years from the date the taxpayer is entitled to such reduction or adjustment.

The Provincial Treasurer shall decide the claim for tax refund or credit within sixty (60) days from receipt thereof. In case the claim for tax refund or credit is denied, the taxpayer may, within sixty (60) days from the date of receipt of the written notice of assessment, appeal to the Provincial Board of Assessment Appeals by filing a petition under oath in the standard form prescribed therefore, together with copies of the tax declaration and such affidavits or documents in support of the appeal.

5. Notice of Delinquency in the Payment of the Real Property Tax.

- a. When the real property tax or any other tax imposed under this Article becomes delinquent, the Local Treasurer shall immediately cause a notice of the delinquency to be posted at the main entrance of the hall and in a publicly accessible and conspicuous place in each barangay. The notice of delinquency shall also be published once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks, in a newspaper of general circulation in the Province or Municipality.
- b. Such notice shall specify the date upon which the tax became delinquent. It shall likewise state that unless the tax, surcharges and penalties are paid before the expiration of the year for which the tax is due, except when the notice of assessment or special levy is contested administratively or judicially, the delinquent real property will be sold at public auction, and the title to the property will be vested in the purchaser, subject, however, to the right of the delinquent owner of the property or any person having legal interest therein to redeem the property within one (1) year from the date of sale.
- 6. Remedies for the Collection of Real Property Tax. For the collection of the basic real property tax and any other tax levied under this Article, the Province and/or Municipality may avail of the remedies by administrative action through levy on real property and sale of real property by public auction or by judicial action.

- 7. Local Government's Lien. The basic real property tax and any other tax levied under this Article shall constitutes a lien on the property subject to tax, superior to all other liens, charges or encumbrances in favor of any person, irrespective of the owner or possessor thereof, enforceable by administrative or judicial action, and may only be extinguished upon payment of the tax and related interests and expenses.
- 8. Levy on Real Property. After the expiration of the time required to pay the basic real property tax or any other tax levied under this Article, the real property subject to such tax may be levied upon through the issuance of a warrant on or before, or simultaneously with the institution of the civil action for the collection of the delinquent tax. The Provincial Treasurer when issuing a warrant of levy shall prepare a duly authenticated certificate showing the name of the delinquent owner of the real property or person having legal interest therein, the description of the property, the amount of tax due and the interest thereon. The warrant shall operate with the force of a legal execution throughout the Province. The warrant shall be mailed to or served upon the delinquent owner of the real property or person having legal interest therein, or in case he is out of the country or cannot be located, to the administrator or occupant of the property. At the same time, written notice of the levy with the attached warrant shall be mailed to or served upon the Provincial Assessor and Register of Deeds of the Province, who shall annotate the levy on the tax declaration and certificate of title of the property, respectively.

The levying officer shall submit a report on the levy to the Sangguniang Panlalawigan within ten (10) days after receipt of the warrant by the owner of the property or person having legal interest therein.

- 9. Penalty for Failure to Issue and Execute Warrant. Without prejudice to the criminal prosecution under the Revised Penal Code and other applicable laws, the Provincial Treasurer or his deputy who fails to issue or execute the warrant of levy within one (1) year from the time the tax becomes delinquent, or within thirty (30) days from the date of issuance thereof, or who is found guilty of abusing the exercise thereof in an administrative or judicial proceeding shall be dismissed from the service.
- 10. Advertisement and Sale. Within thirty (30) days after the service of the warrant of levy, the Provincial Treasurer or his deputy shall proceed to publicly advertise for sale or auction the property or a usable portion thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the tax delinquency and expenses of sale. The advertisement shall be effected by posting a notice at the main entrance of the Provincial Capitol, Municipal Hall, and in a publicly accessible and conspicuous place in the barangay where the property is located, and by publication once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the Province. The advertisement shall specify the amount of the delinquent tax, the interest due thereon and expenses of sale, the date and place of sale, the name of the owner of the real property or person having legal interest therein, and a description of the property to be At any time before the date fixed for the sale, the owner of the real property or person having legal interest therein may stay the proceedings by paying the delinquent tax, the interest due thereon, and the expenses of sale. The sale shall be held either at the main entrance of the Provincial Capitol or Municipal Hall, or on the property to be sold, or at any other place as specified in the notice of sale.

Within thirty (30) days after the sale, the Provincial Treasurer or his deputy shall make a report of the sale to the Sangguniang Panlalawigan, and which shall form part of his records. The Provincial Treasurer shall likewise prepare and deliver to the purchaser a certificate of sale which shall contain the name of the purchaser, a description of the property sold, the amount of the delinquent tax, the interest due thereon, the expenses of sale and a brief description of the proceedings. Provided, however, that proceeds of the sale in excess of the delinquent tax, the interest due thereon, and the expenses of sale shall be remitted to the owner of the real property or person having legal interest therein.

The Provincial Treasurer may advance an amount sufficient to defray the cost of collection through the remedies provided for in this Article, including the expenses of advertisement and sale.

11. Redemption of Property Sold. Within one (1) year from the date of sale, the owner of the delinquent real property or person having legal interest therein, or his representative, shall have the right to redeem the property upon payment to the Provincial Treasurer of the amount of the delinquent tax, including the interest due thereon, and the expenses of sale from the date of delinquency to the date of sale, plus interest of two percent (2%) per month on the purchase price from the date of redemption. Such payment shall invalidate the certificate of sale issued to the purchaser and the owner of the delinquent real property or person having legal interest therein shall be entitled to a certificate of redemption which shall be issued by the Provincial Treasurer or his deputy.

From the date of sale until the expiration of the period of redemption, the delinquent real property shall remain in possession of the owner or person having legal interest therein who shall be entitled to the income and other fruits thereof.

The Provincial Treasurer or his deputy, upon receipt from the purchaser of the certificate of sale, shall forthwith return to the latter the entire amount paid by him plus interest of two percent (2%) per month. Thereafter, the property shall be free from lien of such delinquent tax, interest due thereon and expenses of sale.

12. Final Deed to Purchaser. In case the owner or person having legal interest therein fails to redeem the delinquent property as provided herein, the Provincial Treasurer shall execute a deed conveying to the purchaser said property, free from lien of the delinquent tax, interest due thereon and expenses of sale. The deed shall briefly state the proceedings upon which the validity of sale rests.

13. Purchase of Property by the Provincial Government for

Want of Bidder. In case there is no bidder of the real property advertised for sale as provided herein, or if the highest bid is for an amount insufficient to pay the real property tax and the related interest and cost of sale, the Provincial Treasurer conducting the sale shall purchase the property in behalf of the Provincial Government to satisfy the claim and within two (2) days thereafter shall make a report of the proceedings which shall be reflected upon the records of his office. It shall be the duty of the Register of Deeds upon registration with his office of any such declaration of forfeiture to transfer the title of the forfeited property to the province without the necessity of an order from a competent court.

Within one (1) year from the date of such forfeiture, the owner of the delinquent real property or person having legal interest therein, or his representative, shall have the right to redeem the property upon payment to the Provincial Treasurer the full amount of the real property tax and the related interest, and the costs of sale. If the property is not redeemed as provided herein, the ownership thereof shall be fully vested to the Province.

14. Resale of Real Estate Taken for Taxes, Fees or Charges.

The Sangguniang Panlalawigan may, through a separate ordinance and upon notice of not less than twenty (20) days, sell and dispose of the real property acquired under the preceding subsection at public auction. The proceeds of the sale shall accrue to the General Fund of the Province.

15. Further Distraint or Levy. Levy may be repeated if necessary until the full amount due, including all expenses, is collected.

16. Collection of Real Property Tax Through the Courts. The Provincial Government may enforce the collection of the basic real property tax or any tax levied under this article by civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction, as follows:

a. The Provincial Treasurer shall furnish the Provincial Legal Officer a certified statement of delinquency who, within fifteen (15) days after receipt, shall file the civil action in the name of the Province, the proper court of competent jurisdiction. The jurisdiction of the court is determined by the amount sought to be recovered, exclusive of interests and costs. Thus, where the delinquent tax due does not exceed Ten Thousand Pesos (Php10,000.00),the competent court is the Municipal Trial Court; and where the amount due is in excess of Ten Thousand Pesos, the proper court is the Regional Trial Court.

b. Where cognizable in an inferior court, the action must be filed in the province where the delinquent property is located. Where the Regional Trial Court has jurisdiction, the plaintiff LGU shall file the complaint in the sala of the proper Regional Trial Court.

ps &

c. In both cases, where the claim is either cognizable by an inferior court or by the Regional Trial Court, the Provincial Treasurer shall furnish the Provincial Legal Officer the exact address of the defendant where he may be served with summons.

17. Action Assailing Validity of Tax Sale. No court shall entertain action assailing the validity of any sale at public auction of real property or rights therein under this Article until the taxpayer shall have deposited with the court the amount for which the real property was sold, together with interest of two percent (2%) per month from the date of sale to the time of the institution of the action. The amount so deposited shall be paid to the purchaser at the auction sale if the deed is declared invalid but it shall be returned to the depositor if the action fails.

Neither shall any court declare a sale at public auction invalid by reason of irregularities or informalities in the proceedings unless the substantive rights of the delinquent owner of the real property or the person having legal interest therein have been impaired.

18. Payment of Delinquent Taxes on Property Subject of Controversy. In any action involving the ownership or possession of, or succession to real property, the court may motu proprio or upon representation of the Provincial Treasurer or his deputy, award such ownership, possession or succession to any party to the action upon payment to the court of the taxes with interest due on the property and all other costs that may have accrued, subject to the final outcome of the action.

19. Treasurer to Certify Delinquencies Remaining Uncollected.

The Provincial or Municipal Treasurer, or his deputy shall prepare a certified list of all real property tax delinquencies which remained uncollected or unpaid for at least one (1) year in his jurisdiction, and a statement of the reason or reasons for such non-collection or non-payment, and shall submit the same to the Sanggunian concerned on or before the thirty-first (31st) day of December of the year immediately succeeding the year in which the delinquencies were incurred, with a request for assistance in the enforcement of the remedies for collection provided herein.

(b) Special Provisions:

1. Condonation or Reduction of Real Property Tax and Interest. In case of a general failure of crops or substantial decrease in the price of agricultural or agri-based products, or calamity in the Province, the Sangguniang Panlalawigan by ordinance passed prior to the first (1st) day of January of any year and upon recommendation of the Local Disaster Coordinating Council, may condone or reduce, wholly or partially, the taxes and interest thereon for the succeeding year or years in the province affected by the calamity.

2. Condonation or Reduction of Tax by the President of the Philippines. The President of the Philippines may, when public interest so requires, condone or reduce the real property tax and interest for any year in the province.

- 3. Duty of Register of Deeds and Notaries Public to Assist the Provincial Assessor. It shall be the duty of the Register of Deeds and Notaries Public to furnish the Provincial Assessor with copies of all contracts selling, transferring, or otherwise conveying, leasing, or mortgaging real property received by, or acknowledged before them.
- 4. Insurance Companies to Furnish Information. Insurance companies are hereby required to furnish the Provincial Assessor copies of any contract or policy insurance on buildings, structures and improvements insured by them or such other documents which may be necessary for the proper assessment thereof.
- 5. Fees in Court Actions. As provided for in Sec. 280 of the Local Government Code of 1991, all court actions, criminal or civil, instituted at the instance of the Provincial Treasurer or Assessor shall be exempted from the payment of court and sheriff's fees.
- 6. Fees in Registration of Papers or Documents on Sale of Delinquent Real Property to Province. As provided for in Section 281 of the Local Government Code of 1991, all certificates, documents, and papers covering the sale of delinquent property to the province, if registered in the Registry of Property, shall be exempt from the documentary stamp tax and registration fees.
- 7. Real Property Assessment Notices or Owner's Copies of Tax Declarations to be Exempt from Postal Charges or Fees. As provided for in Sec. 282 of the Local Government Code of 1991, all real property assessment notices or owner's copies of tax declaration sent through mails by the assessor shall be exempt from the payment of postal charges or fees.
- 8. Sale and Forfeiture before Effectivity of this Code. Tax delinquencies incurred, and sales and forfeitures of delinquent real property effected, before the effectivity of this Code, shall be governed by the pertinent provisions of applicable ordinances or laws then in force.
- Section 14. Interests on Unpaid Real Property Tax. Failure to pay the real property tax or any other tax levied under this Article upon the expiration of the periods as provided in Sec. 10, shall subject the taxpayer to the payment of interest at the rate of two percent (2%) per month on the unpaid amount or a fraction thereof, until the delinquent tax shall have been fully paid. In no case, however, shall the total interest on the unpaid tax or portion thereof exceed thirty-six (36) months.

Other Acts by Public Officers. Any officer charged with the duty of assessing a real property who willfully fails to assess or who intentionally omits from the assessment or tax roll any real property which he knows to be taxable, or who willfully or negligently under assesses any real property shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment of not less than one (1) month nor more than six (6) months, or fine of One Thousand Pesos (P1,000.00) but not more than Five thousand Pesos (P5,000.00), or both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court, without prejudice to the filing of the appropriate administrative case.

The same penalty shall be imposed upon any officer charged with the duty of collecting the tax due on real property who willfully or negligently fails to collect the tax and institute the necessary proceedings for the collection of the same.

Any other officer required in this Article to perform acts relating to the administration of the real property tax or to assist the assessor or treasurer in such administration, who willfully fails to discharge such duties shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than Five Hundred Pesos (Php500.00) nor more than Five Thousand Pesos (Php5,000.00), or imprisonment of not less than one (1) month nor more than six (6) months, or both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court, without prejudice to the filing of the appropriate administrative case.

Section 16. Omissions for Delaying Assessment of Real Property and Assessment Appeals. Any government official who intentionally and deliberately delays the assessment of real property or the filing of an appeal against its assessment shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than Five hundred pesos (Php500.00) nor more than Five thousand pesos (Php5,000.00) or imprisonment of not less than one (1) month nor more than six (6) months, or both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court, without prejudice to the filing of the appropriate administrative case.

Section 17. Omissions for Failure to Dispose the Delinquent Real Property at Public Auction. The Provincial/Municipal Treasurer who fails to dispose of delinquent real property at public auction in compliance with the pertinent provisions of this Article, or any other local official whose acts hinder the prompt disposition of delinquent real property at public auction shall, upon conviction, be subjected by a fine of not less than One Thousand Pesos (Php1,000.00) nor more than Five Thousand Pesos (Php5,000.00), or by imprisonment of not less than one (1) month nor more than six (6) months, or both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court, without prejudice to the filing of the appropriate administrative case.

Article Two. Tax on Idle Lands

Section 18. Idle Lands, Coverage. For purposes of real property taxation, idle lands shall include the following:

- (a) Agricultural lands, more than one (1) hectare in area, suitable for cultivation, dairying, inland fishery, and other agricultural uses, one-half (1/2) of which remain uncultivated or unimproved by the owner of the property or person having legal interest therein. Agricultural lands planted to permanent or perennial crops with at least fifty (50) trees to a hectare shall not be considered idle lands. Lands actually used for grazing purposes shall likewise not be considered idle lands.
- (b) Lands, other than agricultural, located in the Province, more than one thousand (1,000) square meters in area and one-half (1/2) of which remain unutilized or unimproved by the owner of the property or person having legal interest therein.

Regardless of land area, this Article shall likewise apply to residential lots in subdivisions duly approved by proper authorities, the ownership of which has been transferred to individual owners, who shall be liable for the additional tax. Provided, however, that individual lots of such subdivisions, the ownership of which has not been transferred to the buyer shall be considered as part of the subdivision, and shall be subject to the additional tax payable by subdivision owner or operator.

- Section 19. Imposition of Tax. There is hereby levied an annual tax on idle lands at the rate of one percent (1%) of the assessed value of the property which shall be in addition to the basic real property tax.
- Section 20. Exemptions. The idle land tax shall not apply to idle lands wherein the owner of the property or person having legal interest therein is physically or legally prevented from improving, utilizing or cultivating the same by reason of force majeure, civil disturbance, natural calamity or any justifiable cause or circumstance.

Any person having legal interest on the land desiring to avail of the exemption under this section shall file the corresponding application with the Provincial Treasurer. The application shall state the ground(s) under which the exemption is being claimed.

- Section 21. Collection and Accrual of Proceeds. The annual tax on idle lands shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as that of the basic real property tax. The proceeds shall accrue to the General Fund of the Province.
- Section 22. Idle Lands by the Assessor. Listing of Provincial/Municipal Assessor shall make and keep an updated record of idle lands located within his area of jurisdiction. For purposes of collection, the Provincial/Municipal Assessor shall furnish a copy thereof to the Provincial/Municipal Treasurer who shall notify, on the basis of such record, the owner of the property or person having legal interest therein of the imposition of the additional tax.

Article Three. Special Levy on Lands

- Section 23. Special Levy. Special levy is a form of taxation based on the benefit principle. The land upon which it is imposed is supposed to have derived some special benefits in terms of higher values from the improvements introduced by the government.
- Section 24. Imposition of Levy. A special levy is hereby imposed on the lands especially benefited by public works projects or improvements funded by the province at a rate not exceeding sixty percent (60%) of the actual cost of such projects and improvements, including the cost of acquiring the land and such other real property in connection therewith.
- Section 25. Exemptions. The special levy shall not apply to lands owned by:
  - (a) The Republic of the Philippines or any of its political subdivisions except when the beneficial use thereof has been granted for consideration or otherwise to a taxable person;
  - (b) Charitable institutions or churches and all lands exclusively used for religious, charitable or educational purposes; and
  - (c) Duly Registered Cooperatives as provided for under R.A. No. 6938 as amended by R.A. No. 9520.

The special levy shall not apply also to the remainder of the land portions of which have been donated to the province for the construction of such projects or improvements.

- Section 26. Time of Payment. The special levy shall be paid within the quarter following the effectivity of the ordinance imposing such levy.
- Section 27. Collection and Accrual of Proceeds. Collection of special levy on land shall be the responsibility of the Provincial Treasurer. The proceeds shall accrue to the General Fund of the Province.

Section 28. Administrative Provisions.

- a. Ordinance Imposing a Levy. The tax ordinance imposing a special levy shall describe with reasonable certainty or accuracy the nature, extent, and location of the public work projects or improvements to be undertaken, state the estimated cost thereof, specify metes and bounds by monuments and lines and the number of annual installments for the payment of the special levy which in no case shall be less than five (5) years nor more than ten (10) years. The Sangguniang Panlalawigan shall not be obliged, in the apportionment and computation of the special levy, to establish a uniform percentage of all lands subject to the payment of the tax for the entire district, but it may fix different rates for different parts or sections thereof, depending on whether such land is more or less benefited by the project.
- b. Publication of Proposed Ordinance Imposing Special Levy.Before the enactment of an ordinance imposing a special levy, the Sangguniang Panlalawigan shall conduct a public hearing thereon; notify in writing the owners of real property to be affected or the persons having legal interest therein as to the date and place thereof and afford the latter the opportunity to express their positions or objections relative to the proposed ordinance.
- c. Fixing the Amount of Special Levy. The special levy authorized herein shall be apportioned, computed and assessed according to the assessed valuation of the lands affected as shown by the books of the Provincial Assessor, or its current assessed value as fixed by said assessor if the property does not appear on record in his books. Upon the effectivity of the ordinance imposing special levy, the Provincial Assessor shall forthwith proceed to determine the annual amount of special levy assessed against each parcel of land comprised within the area especially benefited and shall send to each landowner a written notice thereof by mail, personal service or publication in appropriate cases.
- d. Taxpayer's Remedies Against Special Levy. Any owner of real property affected by a special levy or any person having a legal interest therein may, within sixty (60) days from the date of receipt of the written notice of assessment of the special levy, appeal to the Provincial Board of Assessment Appeals by filing a petition under oath in the form prescribed for the purpose, together with copies of the tax declarations and such affidavits or documents in support of the appeal.

Article Four. Socialized Housing Tax

- Section 29. Exemptions. The following are exempted from the socialized housing tax:
  - a. Those included in the coverage of R.A. No. 6657, otherwise known as the "Comprehensive Agrarian Reform Law";
  - b. Those actually used for national defense and security of the state;
  - c. Those used, reserved or otherwise set aside for government offices, facilities and other installations whether owned by the National Government, its agencies and instrumentalities, including government-owned or controlled corporations, or by the local government units. Provided, however, that the lands herein mentioned, or portions thereof, which have not been used for the past ten (10) years from the effectivity of R.A. No. 7279 shall be covered by this tax;
  - d. Those used or set aside for parks, reserves for flora and fauna, forests and watersheds, and other areas necessary to maintain ecological balance or environmental protection, as determined and certified by the proper government agency; and
  - e. Those actually and primarily used for religious, charitable, or educational purposes, cultural and historical sites, hospitals and health centers, and cemeteries or memorial parks.
- Section 30. Imposition of Tax. There is hereby imposed a socialized housing tax at the rate of one-half percent (0.5%) on the assessed value of lands in urban areas in excess of fifty thousand pesos (Php50,000.00).
- Section 31. Collection and Accrual of Proceeds. The fixed tax on socialized housing shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as that of the basic real property tax. The proceeds of the additional socialized housing tax shall accrue to the Urban Development and Housing Program of the Province.
- Section 32. Interest on Unpaid Tax. There shall be imposed upon the unpaid amount an interest of two percent (2%) per month from the date the tax is due until the tax is fully paid, but in no case shall the total interest on the unpaid amount or a portion thereof exceed thirty-six (36) months. The surcharges and interests shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the tax due.
- Section 33. Administrative Provisions. The Provincial Assessor shall keep an updated record of lands in urban areas within his jurisdiction with assessed values in excess of Fifty Thousand Pesos (Php50,000.00). For purposes of collection, the Provincial Assessor shall notify, on the basis of such record, the owner of the property or person having legal interest therein of the imposition of the additional tax.

Article Five. Tax on Transfer of Real Property Ownership

Section 34. Imposition of Tax. There is hereby levied a tax on the sale, donation, barter, or on any other mode of transferring ownership or title of real property at the rate of Fifty-five Percent (55%) of One Percent (1%) of the total consideration involved in the acquisition of the property, or the fair market value in case the monetary consideration involved in the transfer is not substantial, whichever is higher.

The fair market value as used herein shall be that reflected in the latest tax declaration or the zonal value appearing in the Certificate of Authority to Register (CAR) issued by the Bureau of Internal Revenue (BIR) or mortgage value annotated in the Certificate of Title or Tax Declaration, whichever is higher.

- Section 35. Exemptions. The sale, transfer or other disposition of real property pursuant to R.A. No. 6657 shall be exempt from this tax.
- Section 36. Time of Payment. It shall be the duty of the seller, donor, transferor, executor or administrator, to pay to the Provincial Treasurer the tax herein imposed within sixty (60) days from the date of the execution of the deed or from the date of the property owner's death.

Section 37. Administrative Provisions.

- (a) The Register of Deeds of the Province shall, before registering any deed, require the presentation of the evidence of payment of this tax. The Provincial/Municipal Assessor shall likewise make the same requirement before canceling an old tax declaration and issuing a new one. In addition thereto, a certificate of non-tax delinquency shall also be required before the cancellation of the old tax declaration.
- (b) Notaries Public shall furnish the Provincial Treasurer with a copy of any deed transferring ownership or title to any real property within thirty (30) days from the date of notarization. Copies of deeds transferring ownership or title to any real property bearing alterations and/or erasures on the dates of execution and amounts of consideration shall not be accepted by the Provincial Treasurer.

Section 38. Penalties.

The penalty of imprisonment of not less than one (1) month but not more than six (6) months, or fine of not less than One Thousand (Php1,000.00) Pesos, but not exceeding Five Thousand (Php5,000.00) Pesos, or both, at the discretion of the court, shall be imposed upon:

(a) Any official who, charged with the duty of issuing a new title or the registering of the sale, donation, barter or any mode of transferring ownership or title of real property or issuing a new tax declaration based on a deed of title of real property or issuing new tax declaration based on a deed of transfer, shall willfully effect the transfer without requiring the presentation of evidence of the payment of the tax provided herein;

- (b) Any person who knowingly connives with an officer in charge of performing the requirements of Section 37, in evading the payment of tax due;
- (c) Any person who willfully execute a fraudulent deed of sale in order to evade payment of tax due in accordance with the provisions of this tax on transfer of real property ownership;
- (d) Any person who, after having duly executed/caused the execution/transfer, erases and/or makes alterations on any item on the face of the deed, purposely to reduce or evade the payment of the tax due;
- (e) Any person who willfully fails to fulfill the requirements of the provisions of this tax on transfer of real property ownership; and
- (f) In case of juridical persons, the President or General Manager shall be answerable for such violation.

Article Six. Tax on Printing and Publication

Section 39. Imposition of Tax. There is hereby levied a tax at the rate of Sixty Percent (60%) of one percent (1%) of the Gross Annual Receipts for the preceding calendar year on the business of persons engaged in the printing and/or publication of books, cards, posters, leaflets, handbills, certificates, receipts, pamphlets, and others of similar nature.

In case of a newly started business, the tax shall be one-twentieth (1/20) of one percent (1%) of the capital investment. In the succeeding calendar year, regardless of when the business started to operate, the tax shall be based on the gross receipts for the preceding calendar year, or any fraction thereof, as provided herein.

- Section 40. Exemptions. The receipts from the printing and/or publishing of books or other reading materials prescribed by the Department of Education, Culture and Sports as school texts or references shall be exempt from the tax herein imposed.
- Section 41. Time of Payment. The tax imposed in this Article shall be due and payable in quarterly installments to the Provincial Treasurer, within the first twenty (20) days following each quarter. In the case of a newly-started business, the tax shall be paid before the business starts to operate.

When the business is abandoned, the tax shall not be exacted for a period longer than the current quarter and when the business is abandoned, no refund of the tax corresponding to the unexpired quarter/s shall be made.

Article Seven. Franchise Tax

Section 42. Imposition of Tax. Notwithstanding any exemption granted by any law or other special law, there shall be imposed a tax on business enjoying a franchise, at a rate of Sixty Percent (60%) of One Percent (1%) of the gross annual receipts, which shall include both cash sales and sales on account realized during the preceding calendar year within the Province.

In the case of a newly started business, the tax shall be one-twentieth (1/20) of one percent (1%) of the capital investment. In the succeeding calendar year, regardless of when the business started to operate, the tax shall be based on the gross receipts for the preceding calendar year, or any fraction thereof, as provided herein.

The capital investment to be used as basis of the tax of a newly started business as herein provided shall be determined in the following manner:

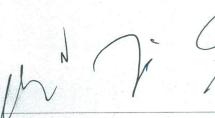

- (a) If the principal office of the business is located within the Province, the paid-up capital stated in the articles of corporation in case of corporations, or in any similar document in case of other types of business organization, shall be considered as capital investment.
- (b) In the case of a branch or sales office located within the Province which commences business operation during the same year as the principal office but which is located in another locality, the paid-up capital referred in (a) shall mean the amount of the capital investment made for the said branch or sales office.
- (c) Where the newly started business is a branch or sales office commencing operations at a year later than that of the principal office, capital investment shall mean the total funds invested in the branch or sales office.
- Section 43. Exemptions. The term businesses enjoying franchise shall not include holders of certificates of public convenience for the operation of public vehicles for reason that such certificates are not considered as franchises.
- Section 44. Time of Payment. The tax imposed in this Article shall be due and payable in quarterly installments to the Provincial Treasurer, within the first twenty (20) days following each quarter in the case of a newly started business, the tax shall be paid before the business starts to operate.

Section 70. Administrative Provisions.

- (a) Application for Permit. Application for permit to engage in any business, trade or profession must be in writing and in quadruplicate filed with the Office of the Provincial Governor who may grant or deny the permit applied for. The applicant shall set forth the name and residence of the applicant, a full description of the business, the proposed capital investment, the place where such business or profession shall be conducted and such other information as may be required. If the permit is granted, it shall be brought to the Provincial Treasurer or his duly authorized deputy which shall be the basis for the collection of the fee provided herein. Any false statement willfully made in regard to the business, trade or profession with intent to pay a lesser amount of fee shall be a ground for denying the permit or revoking the same if already granted.
- (b) Contents and Limitations. Every permit issued in accordance with this Article shall designate the number of said permit, the date of issue and expiration, the name and residence of the person to whom issued, and a sufficient description of the business and the place where the business, trade or profession be conducted or exercised. Every separate business must be covered by another permit. Permit issued in accordance with this Article is non-transferable and non-assignable.
- (c) Term of Permit. Permit issued under this Article shall be good for a period of one (1) year and shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next following the date of issue and it shall be unlawful for any person holding such permit to use or continue to conduct business, trade or profession without renewing the Permit.
- (d) Renewal of Permit. Every permit issued pursuant to this Article shall be renewed within the first twenty (20) days of January following its expiration provided above.
- (e) Posting/Surrender. The permit shall be kept conspicuously exhibited in plain view in or at the place where the business is conducted or profession is exercised, subject to reproduction upon demand by the Provincial Treasurer or his duly authorized deputy. It shall be surrendered when revoked, or when the same has expired, and no longer to be renewed.
- (f) Validation of Permits. Every permit issued to any person or entity to conduct or engage in any business, trade or profession shall have a continuing validity only upon payment of the corresponding fee.
- Section 71. Duty of a Person Retiring from Business, Trade or Profession. Any person retiring from business and practice of profession shall surrender to the Provincial Treasurer or his deputy, the official receipt evidencing his payment of tax, fees or imposition, permit issued, books of accounts and other documents used in the said business to be stamped "RETIRED" and returned to the taxpayer concerned.

Article One. Collection and Accounting of Provincial Taxes and Other Impositions

- Section 119. Tax Period. Unless otherwise provided in this Ordinance, the tax period for all local taxes, fees, and charges imposed under this Ordinance shall be the calendar year.
- Section 120. Accrual of Tax. Unless otherwise provided in this Ordinance, all taxes and charges imposed herein shall accrue on the first (1st) day of January of each year. However, new taxes, fees or charges, or changes in the rate of existing taxes, fees, or charges, shall accrue on the first (1st) day of the quarter next following the effectivity of this Ordinance.
- Section 121. Time of Payment. Unless specifically provided herein, all taxes, fees and charges imposed in this Ordinance shall be paid within the first twenty (20) days of January or each subsequent quarter, as the case maybe.
- Section 122. Surcharge for Late Payment. Failure to pay the tax described in this Ordinance within the time required shall subject the taxpayer to a surcharge of twenty-five percent (25%) of the original amount of tax due, such surcharge to be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the tax due.

d in the same manner as the tax due.

Section 123. Interest on Unpaid Tax. In addition to the surcharge imposed herein, where the amount of any other revenue due to the province except voluntary contributions or donations, is not paid on the date fixed in the Ordinance, or in the contract, expressed or implied, or upon the occurrence of the event which has given rise to its collection, there shall be collected as part of that amount an interest at the rate not to exceed two percent (2%) per month from the date it is due until it is paid, but in no case shall the total interest on the unpaid amount or a portion thereof exceed thirty-six (36) months.

Where an extension of time for the payment of the tax has been granted and the amount is not paid in full prior to the expiration of the extension, the interest above-mentioned shall be collected on the unpaid amount from the date it becomes originally due until fully paid.

- Section 124. Collection. Unless otherwise specified, all taxes, fees and charges due to this Province shall be collected by the Provincial Treasurer or his duly authorized representatives. Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Ordinance or under existing laws and ordinances, the Provincial Treasurer is hereby authorized, subject to the approval of the Provincial Governor, to promulgate rules and regulations for the proper and efficient administration and collection of taxes, fees and charges herein levied and imposed.
- Section 125. Issuance of Receipts. It shall be the duty of the Provincial Treasurer or his authorized representative to issue the required official receipt to the person paying the tax, fee or charge wherein the date, amount, name of the person paying and the account for which it is paid, are shown.
- Section 126. Record of Persons Paying Revenue. It shall be the duty of the Provincial Treasurer to keep a record, alphabetically arranged and open to public inspection during office hours, of the names of all persons paying provincial taxes, fees and charges. He shall, as far as practicable, establish and keep current the appropriate tax roll for each kind of tax, fee or charge provided in this Ordinance.
- Section 127. Accounting of Collections. Unless otherwise provided in this Ordinance and other existing laws and ordinances, all monies collected by virtue of this Ordinance shall be accounted for in accordance with the provisions of existing laws, rules and regulations and credited to the General Fund of the Province.
- Section 128. Examination of Books of Accounts. The Provincial Treasurer shall, by himself or through any of his deputies duly authorized in writing, examine the books of accounts and other pertinent records of the business establishments doing business within the province, and subject to provincial taxes, to ascertain, assess and collect the true and correct amount of the tax due from the taxpayer concerned. Such examination shall be made during regular business hours once every year for every tax period, which shall be the year immediately preceding the examination. Any examination conducted pursuant to the provisions of this Section shall be certified to by the examining official and such certificate shall be made of record in the books of accounts of the taxpayer concerned.

In case the examination herein authorized is to be made by a duly authorized deputy of the Provincial Treasurer, there shall be written authority issued to the former which shall specifically state the name, address and business of the taxpayer whose books of accounts and pertinent records are to be examined, the date and place of such examination, and the procedure to be followed in conducting the same.

For this purpose, the records of the Revenue District Office of the Bureau of Internal Revenue shall be made available to the Provincial Treasurer, his deputy or duly authorized representative.

The forms and the guidelines to be observed for the proper and effective implementation of this Section shall be those prescribed by the Department of Finance.

- Section 129. Accrual to the General Fund of Fines, Costs and Forfeitures. Unless otherwise provided by law or ordinance, fines, costs, forfeitures, and other pecuniary liabilities imposed by the court for violation of any provincial ordinance shall accrue to the General Fund of the province.
- Section 130. Adjustment of Fees. Fees collected by the Provincial Treasurer shall be increased/decreased upon recommendation of the Provincial Treasurer and approval of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan.

Article Two. Civil Remedies for Collection of Revenues

- Section 131. Local Government's Lien. Local taxes, fees, charges and other revenues herein provided constitute a lien, superior to all liens, charges or encumbrances in favor of any person, enforceable by appropriate administrative or judicial action, not only upon any property or rights therein which may be subject to lien but also to property used in business, occupation, practice of profession or calling, or exercise of privilege with respect to which the lien is imposed. The lien may only be extinguished upon full payment of the delinquent local taxes, fees, and charges including surcharges and interest.
- Section 132. Civil Remedies. The civil remedies for the collection of local taxes, fees or charges, and related surcharges and interest resulting from delinquency shall be:
  - (a) By administrative action through distraint of goods, chattels or effects, and other personal property of whatever character, including stocks and other securities, debts, credits, bank accounts, and interest in and rights to personal property, and to levy upon real property and interest in or rights to real property; and

(b) By judicial action.

Either of these remedies or all maybe pursued concurrently or simultaneously at the discretion of the Provincial Treasurer.

- Section 133. Distraint of Personal Property. The remedy by distraint shall proceed as follows:
  - (a) Seizure. Upon failure of the person owing any local tax, fee or charge to pay the same at the time required, the Provincial Treasurer or his deputy may, upon written notice, seize or confiscate any personal property belonging to the person or any personal property subject to the lien, in sufficient quantity to satisfy the tax, fee or charge in question, together with any increment thereto incident to delinquency and the expenses of seizure. In such case, the Provincial Treasurer or his deputy shall issue a duly authenticated certificate based upon the records of this office showing the fact of delinquency and the amount of the tax, fee or charge and penalty due. Such certificate shall serve as sufficient warrant for the distraint of personal property aforementioned, subject to the taxpayer's right to claim exemption under the provisions of existing laws. Distrained personal property shall be sold at public auction in the manner herein provided for.
  - (b) Accounting of Distrained Goods. The officer executing the distraint shall make or cause to be made an account of the goods, chattels or effects distrained, a copy of which signed by himself shall be left either with the owner or person from whose possession the goods, chattels, or effects are taken, or at the dwelling or place of business of that person and with someone of suitable age and discretion, to which list shall be added a statement of the sum demanded and a note of the time and place of sale.
  - (c) Publication. The officer shall forthwith cause a notification to be exhibited in not less than three (3) conspicuous places in the territory of the local government units where the distraint is made; specifying the time and place of sale, and the articles distrained. The time of sale shall not be less than twenty (20) days after notice to the owner or possessor of the property as above specified and the publication or posting of the notice. One place for the posting of the notice shall be at the Office of the Provincial Governor.
  - (d) Release of Distrained Property Upon Payment Prior to Sale. If at any time prior to the consummation of the sale, all proper charges are paid to the officer conducting the same, the goods or effects distrained shall be restored to the owner.
  - (e) Procedure of Sale. At the time and place fixed in the notice, the officer conducting the sale shall sell the goods or effects so distrained at public auction to the highest bidder for cash. Within five (5) days after the same, the Provincial Treasurer, shall make a report of the proceedings in writing to the Provincial Governor. Should the property distrained be not disposed of within one hundred and twenty (120) days from the date of distraint, the same shall be considered as sold to the local government unit concerned for the amount of the assessment made thereon by the Committee on Appraisal and to the extent of the same amount, the tax delinquencies shall be cancelled.

Said Committee on Appraisal shall be composed of the Provincial Treasurer as Chairman, with a representative of the Commission on Audit and the Provincial Assessor as members.

(f) Disposition of Proceeds. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied to satisfy the tax including the surcharges, interest, and other penalties incident to delinquency, and the expenses of the distraint and sale. The balance over and above what is required to pay the entire claim shall be returned to the owner of the property sold. The expenses chargeable upon the seizure and sale shall embrace only the actual expenses of seizure and preservation of the property pending the sale, and no charge shall be imposed for the services of the local officer or his representative. Where the proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the claim, other property may, in like manner, be distrained until the full amount due, including all expenses, is collected.

(g) Levy on Real Property. After the lapse of the time or period prescribed for the payment of the delinquency tax, fee or charge, real property may be levied on, before, simultaneously or after the distraint of personal property belonging to the delinquent taxpayer. To this end, the Provincial Treasurer, shall prepare a duly authenticated certificate showing the name of the taxpayer and the amount of tax, fee or charge and penalty due from him. Said certificate shall operate with the force of a legal execution throughout the Philippines. Levy shall be effected by writing upon said certificate of description of the property upon which levy is made. At the same time, written notice of the levy shall be mailed to or served upon the Assessor and Register of Deed of the province who shall annotate the levy on the tax declaration and certificate of title of the property, respectively, and the delinquent taxpayer or, if he be absent from the province, to his agent or the manager of the business in respect to which the liability arose, or if there be none, to the occupant of the property in question.

In case the levy on real property is not issued before or simultaneously with the warrant of distraint on personal property, and the personal property of the taxpayer is not sufficient to satisfy his delinquency, the Provincial Treasurer, shall within thirty (30) days after execution of the distraint, proceed with the levy on the taxpayer's real property.

A report on any levy shall, within ten (10) days after receipt of the warrant, be submitted by the levying officer to the Sangguniang Panlalawigan.

- (h) Penalty for Failure to Issue and Execute Warrant. Without prejudice to criminal prosecution under the Revised Penal Code and other applicable laws, the Provincial Treasurer, if he fails to issue or execute the warrant of distraint or levy after the expiration of the time prescribed, or if he is found guilty abusing the exercise thereof by competent authority, shall automatically be dismissed from the service after due notice and hearing.
- (i) Advertisement and Sale. Within thirty (30) days after levy, the Provincial Treasurer shall proceed to publicly advertise for sale or auction the property or a usable portion thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the claim and cost of sale; and such advertisement shall cover a period of at least thirty (30) days. It shall be effected by posting a notice at the main entrance of the provincial hall, and in a public and conspicuous place in the barangay where the real property is located, and by publication once a week for three (3) weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the province. The advertisement shall contain the amount of taxes, fees or charges, and penalties due thereon, and the time and place of sale, the name of taxpayer against whom the taxes, fees or charges are levied, and a short description of the property to be sold. At any time before the date fixed for the sale, the taxpayer may stay the proceedings by paying the taxes, fees, charges, penalties and interests. If he fails to do so, the sale shall proceed and shall be held either at the main entrance of the Provincial Hall or on the property to be sold, or at any other place as determined by the Provincial Treasurer, conducting the sale as specified in the notice of sale.

Within thirty (30) days after the sale, the Provincial Treasurer or his deputy shall make a report of the sale to the Sangguniang Panlalawigan, and which shall form part of his records. After consultation with the Sangguniang Panlalawigan, the Provincial Treasurer shall make and deliver to the purchaser a certificate of sale, showing proceedings of the sale, describing the property sold, stating the name of the purchaser and setting out the exact amount of all taxes, fees, charges and related surcharges, interests, or penalties: Provided, however, that any excess in the proceeds of the sale over the claim and cost of sales shall be turned over to the owner of the property. The Provincial Treasurer may, by a duly approved ordinance, advance an amount sufficient to defray the costs of collection by means of the remedies provided for in this Ordinance, including the preservation or transportation in case of personal property, and the advertisement and subsequent sale, in cases of personal and real property, including improvements thereon.

(j) Redemption of Property Sold. Within one (1) year from the date of sale, the delinquent taxpayer or his representative shall have the right to redeem the property upon payment to the Provincial Treasurer of the total amount of taxes, fees, charges, and other related surcharges, interests or penalties from the date of delinquency to the date of sale, plus interest of not more than two percent (2%) per month on the purchase price from the date of purchase to the date of redemption. Such payment shall invalidate the certificate of sale issued to the purchaser and the owner shall be entitled to a certificate of redemption from the Provincial Treasurer or his representative.

The Provincial Treasurer or his deputy upon surrender by the purchaser of the certificate of sale previously issued to him, shall forthwith return to the latter the entire purchase price paid by him plus the interest of not more than two percent (2%) per month herein provided for, the portion of the cost of sale and other legitimate expenses incurred by him, and said property thereafter shall be free from the lien of such taxes, fees or charges and other related surcharges, interests, and penalties.

The owner, shall not, however, be deprived of the possession of said property and shall be entitled to the rentals and other income thereof until the expiration of the time allowed for its redemption.

- (k) Final Deed of Purchase. In case the taxpayer fails to redeem the property as provided herein, the Provincial Treasurer shall execute a deed conveying to the purchaser so much of the property as has been sold, free from liens of any taxes, fees, charges, related surcharges, interests and penalties. The deed shall sufficiently recite all the proceedings upon which the validity of the sale depends.
- (I) Purchase of Property by the Province for Want of Bidder. In case there is no bidder for the real property advertised for sale as provided herein or if the highest bid is for an amount insufficient to pay the taxes, fees, or charges, related surcharges, interests, penalties and cost, the Provincial Treasurer shall purchase the property on behalf of the province to satisfy the claim and within two (2) days thereafter shall make a report of his proceedings which shall be reflected upon the records of his office. It shall be the duty of the Register of Deeds concerned upon registration with his office of any such declaration of forfeiture to transfer the title of the forfeited property to this province without the necessity of an order from a competent court.

Within one (1) year from the date of such forfeiture the taxpayer or any of his representative, may redeem the property by paying to the Provincial Treasurer the full amount of the taxes, fees, charges and related surcharges, interests or penalties, and the costs of sale. If the property is not redeemed as provided herein, the ownership thereof shall be fully vested on the province.

- (m) Resale of Real Estate Taken for Taxes, Fees or Charges. The Sangguniang Panlalawigan may, by a duly approved ordinance, and upon notice of not less than twenty (20) days, sell and dispose of the real property acquired under the preceding paragraph at public auction. The proceeds of the sale shall accrue to the general fund of this province.
- (n) Collection of Delinquent Taxes, Fees, Charges or Other Revenues through Judicial Action. The province may enforce the collection of delinquent taxes, fees, charges or other revenues by civil action in The civil action shall be filed by the any court of competent jurisdiction. Provincial Treasurer through the Provincial Legal Office within the period prescribed in Section 194 of the Republic Act No. 7160, as implemented under Article 284 of the Implementing Rules and Regulations (IRR).
- (o) Further Distraint or Levy. The remedies by distraint or levy may be repeated, if necessary, until the full amount due, including all expenses is collected.
- (p) Personal Property Exempt from Distraint or Levy. The following property shall be exempted from distraint and the levy, attachment or execution thereof for delinquency in the payment of any local tax, fee, or charge, including the related surcharge and interest:
  - 1. Tools and the implements necessarily used by the delinquent taxpayer in the trade or employment;
  - 3. One (1) horse, cow, carabao, or other beast of burden, such as the delinquent taxpayer may select, and necessarily used by him in his occupation;
  - 4. His necessary clothing, and that of all his family;
  - 5. Household furniture and utensils necessary for housekeeping and used for that purpose by the delinquent taxpayer, as he may select, of a value not exceeding Ten Thousand Pesos (Php10,000.00);
  - 6. Provisions, including crops, actually provided for individual or family use sufficient for four (4) months;
  - 7. The professional libraries of doctors, engineers, lawyers and judges;
  - 8. One fishing boat and net, not exceeding the total value of Ten Thousand Pesos (Php10,000.00), lawfully used by the fisherman for his livelihood; and
  - 9. Any material or article forming part of a house or improvement of any real property.

Article Three. Taxpayer's Remedies

Section 134. Periods of Assessment and Collection.

- (a) Local taxes, fees, or charges shall be assessed within five (5) years from the date they became due. No action for the collection of such taxes, fees, or charges, whether administrative or judicial, shall be instituted after the expiration of such period: Provided, that taxes, fees, or charges which have accrued before the effectivity of the Local Government Code of 1991 may be assessed within a period of five (5) years from the date they became due.
- (b) In case of fraud or intent to evade the payment of taxes, fees, or charges, the same may be assessed within ten (10) years from discovery of the fraud or intent to evade payment.
- (c) Local taxes, fees, or charges may be collected within five (5) years from the date of assessment by administrative or judicial action. No such action shall be instituted after the expiration of said period: Provided, however, that taxes, fees and charges assessed before the effectivity of the LGC of 1991 may be assessed within a period of three (3) years from the date of assessment.
- (d) The running of the periods of prescription provided in the preceding paragraphs shall be suspended from the time when:
  - 1. The treasurer is legally prevented from making the assessment or collection:
  - 2. The taxpayer requests for a reinvestigation and executes a waiver in writing before expiration of the period within which to assess or collect; and
  - 3. The taxpayer is out of the country or otherwise cannot be located.

Section 135. Protest of Assessment. When the Provincial Treasurer or his duly authorized representative finds that correct taxes, fees, or charges have not been paid, he shall issue a notice of assessment stating the nature of the tax, fee or charge, the amount of deficiency, the surcharges, interests and penalties. Within sixty (60) days from the receipt of the notice of assessment, the taxpayer may file a written protest with the Provincial Treasurer contesting the assessment; otherwise, the assessment shall become final and executory. The Provincial Treasurer shall decide the protest within sixty (60) days from the time of its filing. If the Provincial Treasurer finds the protest to be wholly or partly meritorious, he shall issue a notice cancelling wholly or partially the assessment. However, if the Provincial Treasurer finds the assessment to be wholly or partly correct, he shall deny the protest wholly or partly with notice to the taxpayer. In cases where the protest is denied, the taxpayer shall have thirty (30) days from the receipt of denial of the protest or from the lapse of the sixty-day period prescribed herein within which to appeal with the court of competent jurisdiction otherwise the assessment becomes conclusive and unappealable.

Section 13G. Claim for Refund of Tax Credit. No case or proceeding shall be maintained in any court for the recovery of any tax, fee, or charge erroneously or illegally collected until a written claim for refund or credit has been filed with the Provincial Treasurer. No case or proceeding shall be entertained in any court after the expiration of two (2) years from the date of payment of such tax, fee, or charge, or from the date the taxpayer is entitled to a refund or credit.

Section 137. Legality of this Code. Any question on the constitutionality or legality of this Ordinance may be raised on appeal within thirty (30) days from the effectivity thereof to the Secretary of Justice who shall render a decision within sixty (60) days from the date of receipt of the appeal: Provided, however, that such appeal shall not have the effect of suspending effectivity of this Ordinance and the accrual and payment of the tax, fee, or charge levied herein: Provided finally, that within thirty (30) days after the receipt of the decision or the lapse of the sixty-day (60) period without the Secretary of the Justice acting upon the appeal, the aggrieved party may file the appropriate proceedings with a court of competent jurisdiction.

Article Four. Miscellaneous Provisions

Section 138. Power to Levy Other Taxes, Fees or Charges. The Province may exercise the power to levy taxes, fees or charges on any base or subject not otherwise specifically enumerated herein or taxed under the provisions of the National Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or other applicable laws: Provided, that the taxes, fees or charges shall not be unjust, excessive, oppressive, confiscatory or contradictory to declared national policy. Provided, further, that the ordinance levying such taxes, fees or charges shall not be enacted without any prior public hearing conducted for the purpose.

- Section 139. Publication of the Revenue Code. Within ten (10) days after its approval, a certified copy of this Ordinance shall be published in full for three (3) consecutive days in a newspaper of local circulation. Provided, however, that in cases where there are no newspapers of local circulation, the same may be posted in at least two (2) conspicuous and publicly accessible places.
- Section 140. Public Dissemination of this Code. Copies of this Revenue Code shall be furnished to the Provincial Treasurer for public dissemination.
- Section 141. Authority to Adjust Rates. The Sangguniang Panlalawigan shall have the sole authority to adjust tax rates as prescribed herein not oftener than once every five (5) years, but in no case shall such adjustment exceed ten percent (10%) of the taxes fixed under this Code.
- Section 142. Withdrawal of Tax Exemption Privileges. Unless otherwise provided in this Revenue Code, tax exemptions or incentives granted to, or presently enjoyed by all persons, whether natural or juridical, including government-owned or controlled corporations, except local water districts, cooperatives duly registered under RA 6938, non-stock and non-profit hospitals and educational institutions, business enterprises certified by the Board of Investment (BOI) as pioneer or non-pioneer for a period of six (6) and four (4) years, respectively, from the date of registration, business entity, association, or cooperatives registered under RA 6810, and printer and/or publisher of books or other reading materials, prescribed by DECS as school texts or references, insofar as receipts from the printing and/or publishing thereof are concerned, are hereby withdrawn.

CHAPTER VII. GENERAL PENAL PROVISIONS

Section 143. Penalties for Violation of Tax Ordinance. Any person or persons who violates any of the provisions of this Ordinance or the rules or regulations promulgated by authority of this Ordinance shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than One Thousand Pesos (Php1,000.00) nor more than Five Thousand Pesos (Php5,000.00), or imprisonment of not less than one (1) month nor more than six (6) months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

If the violation is committed by any juridical entity, the President, General Manager, or the individual entrusted with the administration thereof at the time of the commission of the violation shall be held responsible or liable therefore.

Punishment by a fine or imprisonment as herein provided for, shall not relieve the offender from the payment of tax, fee or charge imposed under this Ordinance.

CHAPTER VIII. FINAL PROVISIONS

- Section 144. Separability Clause. If for any reason, any section or provision of this Ordinance shall be held to be unconstitutional or invalid by competent authority, such judgment or action shall not affect or impair the other sections or provisions thereof.
- Section 145. Applicability Clause. All other matters relating to the impositions in this Ordinance shall be governed by pertinent provisions of existing laws and other ordinances.
- Section 146. Repealing Clause. All ordinances, resolutions, executive orders, rules and regulations, or part thereof, in conflict with, or inconsistent with any provisions of this Ordinance are hereby repealed or modified accordingly. All existing revenue ordinances in the province are repealed by this ordinance.

Section 147. Special Transitory Provisions.

- (a) Pending enactment of a Separate Market Code, existing provisions on markets and slaughterhouse fees of this Code are retained and deemed to be in full force and effect. Similarly, provisions for fishery rentals and fees shall be in full force and effect.
- (b) The tax on special levy and socialized housing shall be collected upon enactment by Sangguniang Panlalawigan of an enabling ordinance.

Section 148. Effectivity.

This Ordinance shall take effect in accordance with the provisions of the Local Government Code of 1991.
